

2006 NGMA AWARD RECIPIENTS

Annual Training Conference
Washington, DC – Presented April 26, 2006

— Distinguished Service Award —

Richard Goodman

Branch Chief, Grants Management Branch

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), Washington, DC

for exceptional and tireless service in management of over 30,000 thousand fire grant awards totaling several billion; for the development of an agency-based electronic grant management system; and for grant policy issuances that demonstrate an encyclopedic knowledge of Federal grant laws, rules, procedures and regulations.

— Special Achievement Award —

Maryland Governor's Grants Office

for the technical assistance to Maryland State Agencies, local governments, and non-profit organizations, through proactive and aggressive coordination of all State funding activity; and for fast-tracking four cornerstones to build a State grants management foundation ensuring significant increases in future federal and foundation funding to Maryland.

— electronic solutions Award —

Stephen Dowdy

Office of Sponsored Programs, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Massachusetts

for innovative and highly successful systems development activities for grant-related solutions, and in part, for work with the Federal grantor and grantee communities through the Federal Demonstration Partnership.

— PUBLICATIONS Award —

Roundtable on Religious and Social Welfare Policy

for publication of numerous research papers, reports, and analyses of legal development and policy change, as well as transcripts of meetings and panel discussions on the role of faith-based organizations in America's social welfare system.

— Newton AWARD —

Ellen Angus

Program Manager, Logistics Management Institute (LMI), Virginia

for her 35-year commitment to improving the management of Federal assistance programs; for the development of internal grants policy and procedural manuals for Federal agency staff as well as various external guidance documents for grantees; and for developing grants management review protocols for agency staff, and workforce analysis tools to aid managers in better structuring their grants programs.

— President's Award —

Cynthia Bowie

Assistant Director for Audits, U.S. Dept. of Justice
Community Oriented Policing Services, Washington, DC